2. Purposes

We like to keep you informed on everything related to stocklots. To do this we require some personal data for marketing purposes. The frequency will increase leading up to an event and decrease after an event to keep it relevant to you.

Your data will only be used within our company for Eurotrade Fair and Stocklots.com.

3. Personal data

We like to keep it simple when collecting and using your personal data. That's why we only use your name, email and address when you leave it on our site.

4. Consent

With leaving your information on our website you are allowing us to keep you informed on stocklots related news. This will only be used for the purposes mentioned earlier.

5. Viewing, correcting and/or deleting your personal information

You are allowed to know which of your personal data we have and are also allowed to change this. For requests please send a mail to contact@eurotradefair.nl.

6. Security

We have taken the necessary precautions to keep your personal data secure.

Your data is being kept encrypted on separate servers. Should there ever be a breach resulting in the loss of your data you will be contacted about this. There is no expiration date on the collected data.

7. Cookies

We use cookies to collect information about our website visitors to improve our website and for targeted communication. You are allowed to refuse these cookies. Access your browser settings to disable cookies.
